FESTAS DE LISBOA'19 SARDINE CONTEST PARTICIPATION REGULATIONS

Article 1 (Object)

1. The "Festas de Lisboa'19 Sardine Contest" is an initiative run by Empresa de Gestão de Equipamentos e Animação Cultural, E.M., S.A, hereafter referred to as EGEAC. Open to everyone, it aims to encourage people to produce sardine designs to be used in the Festas de Lisboa'19 publicity campaigns.
2. A contest called "Turma da Sardinha'19" (Sardine Class'19) will run alongside the "Festas de Lisboa'19 Sardine Contest" for the first time this year, in order to boost participation amongst Primary School pupils. This contest also involves the creation of sardine designs, which will then be used in the Festas de Lisboa'19 publicity campaign.
3. Ownership of the copyright of winning sardine designs belongs to EGEAC, in accordance with the provisions set out in article 14, paragraph 1 of the Code for Copyright and Related Rights. As such, EGEAC will hold the rights over them as provided for in articles 67, 68 and 159 of the abovementioned Code, namely the right to: reproduce, distribute and publically communicate the designs, including the right to disseminate and publish them in the press or otherwise display them in public; to distribute them or disseminate them by any means of sign, sound or image reproduction; to adapt them to any physical structure; to make any modifications to them; to use them within other pieces of work; and to reproduce them, directly or indirectly, temporarily or permanently, by any means and in any form, as a whole or in part.
4. The foregoing provision (paragraph 3) includes any type of use for non-commercial purposes, with their commercial use being the subject of a specific and separate contract.
5. The attribution of copyright ownership for winning sardine designs to EGEAC is definitive and not time limited as far as non-commercial use is concerned, with commercial use being the subject of a specific agreement to be defined within the contract mentioned in the previous paragraph.
6. In relation to the provisions set out in article 14, paragraph 4 of the aforementioned Code, it is hereby established that the use of winning entries for the purposes described in these Regulations does not confer on the respective author(s) the right to any supplementary payments or benefits, be they financial or of any other nature, with copyright ownership belonging to EGEAC.

7. Participants give their consent for their sardine contest entry designs to be used for promotional or publicity purposes (in accordance with paragraph 2 above), such as in exhibitions or in freely-distributed publications, in accordance with the terms set out in paragraphs 1 and 2 of article 159 in the abovementioned Code.

8. Sardine contest entry designs must make reference to their participation in the "Festas de Lisboa'19 Sardine Contest" or "Turma da Sardinha'19" whenever they are used by their designers or third parties. EGEAC must also be made aware of their use beforehand.

9. Participation in this contest by submitting an application and design entry presupposes the complete acceptance of the conditions set out in these Regulations.
